Borealis String Quartet

With its intense, focused style of playing, drawing the maximum expression from every phrase, the quartet presents itself as a group of star players, the energy radiating from them like the stars." – Calgary Herald

"The youthful Borealis String Quartet plays with a passion I haven't heard since the heyday of the fabled Budapest Quartet in the 1950s." – Music at Kohl Mansion, Burlingame, CA

One of the most dynamic and exciting world-class ensembles of its generation, the Borealis String Quartet has received international critical acclaim as an ensemble praised for its fiery performances, passionate style, and refined, musical interpretation. Founded in Vancouver, British Columbia in the fall of 2000 and rapidly establishing a stellar reputation, the Borealis has toured extensively in North America, Europe and Asia and performed to enthusiastic sold-out audiences in major cities, including New York, Washington, DC, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Vienna, Rome, Mainz, Shanghai, Taipei, Beijing, Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and, of course, in their home town of Vancouver. The Quartet is frequently seen on television and heard on CBC Radio and other stations across North America and Asia and has recorded seven CDs which feature the great classics as well as music written especially for them. It has also filmed music videos which were debuted at the Vancouver International Film Festival and often broadcast on Bravo Television and the Knowledge Network and most recently was featured in the documentary film "A New Economy." The Borealis is on faculty and acts as the Quartet in Residence at the Kwantlen Polytechnic University, Langley Campus (KPU) and at the Langley Community Music School (LCMS).
